ROMANIAN INTERNATIONAL OPEN, ORADEA, ROMANIA, 25.10.2008

On the 25th of October 2008 approximately 100 competitors from Hungary, Bulgaria, Croatia and Romania took part in the 2nd Romanian International Open Tournament for Juniors and Kadets. The tournament was attended by a large number of spectators that witnessed an entertaining competition, with very technical fights for the 15-16 and 17-18 years age groups.

Overall, the most gold medals were awarded to Hungarian competitors that were present at the tournament with a large number of fighters.

The competitors displayed a high level of preparation. The competition was a real success and proved to be very useful for the preparation of the forthcoming European Championship next spring by contributing to the experience and development of the young competitors
